

Bowls Taranaki Inc

Executive Officer

Bowls Taranaki is considered one of the foremost bowling centres in New Zealand and is further regarded as one of the best regional sporting bodies in Taranaki. It has 21 member clubs, which incorporates just under 1,200 full playing members and nearly 4,000 casual participants.

The Executive Officer is responsible for the development and management of the organisation, reporting to the seven-person Board. Specific responsibilities include:

- Revenue development
- Event and team management
- Marketing
- Compliance
- Stakeholder relationships
- Board administration
- Financial and asset management

Following the retirement of the Executive Officer, the Board is currently seeking a replacement for this position. It is anticipated that the role will be part-time. The hours and package can have a degree of flexibility depending on the circumstances of the successful applicant. Applications close on April 5 at 2pm.
